

The Missouri Comprehensive Guidance Program

Pathways to Success The Life-Career Perspective

Bragg Stanley, Director of Guidance and Placement
Department of Elementary and Secondary Education
Division of Career Education

573.751.0857 bragg.stanley@dese.mo.gov

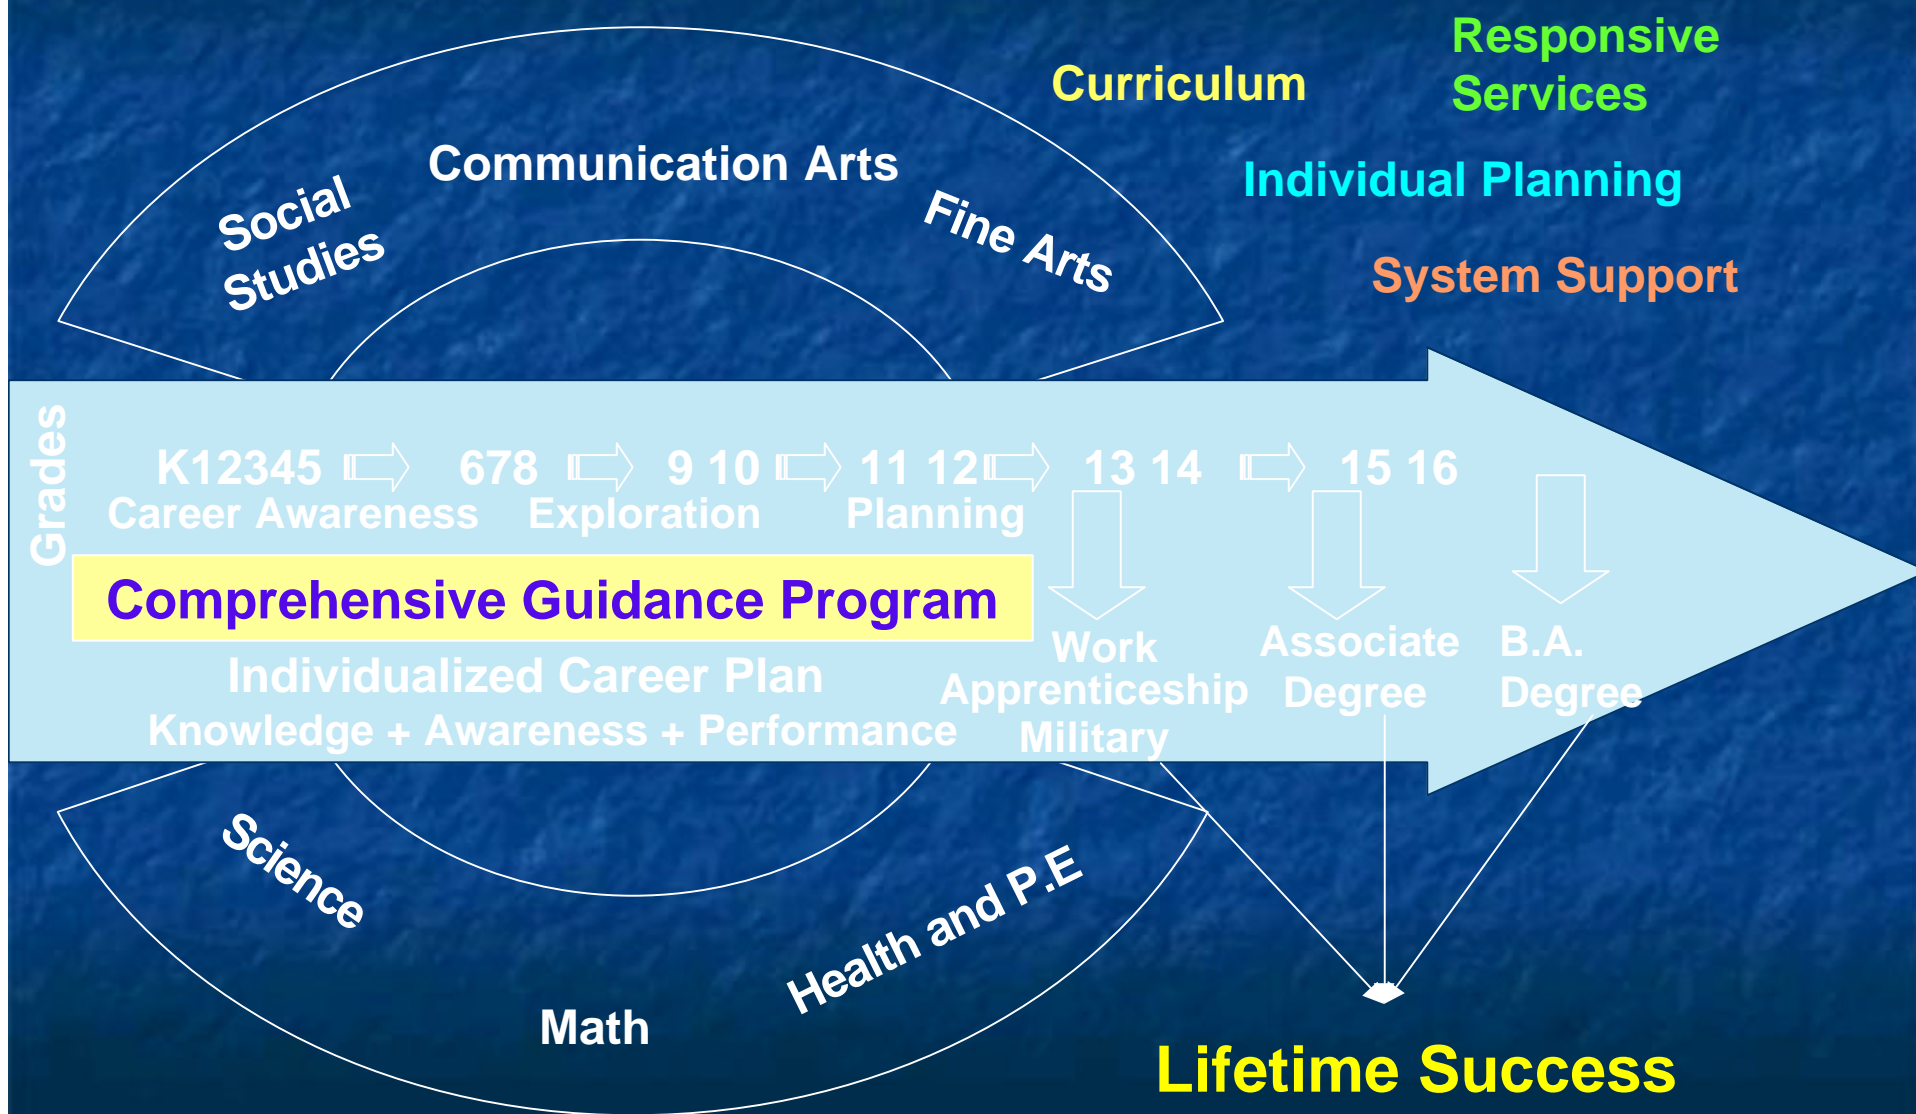

“Life Career Development”

- self-development over the life span through the integration of roles, settings, and events of a person's life

Gysbers and Moore

Career Development: A Life-Long Process

Involving Academic and Personal Development

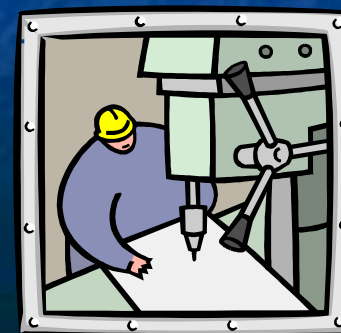

Career Awareness

Teaching A Consistent Language of Careers

Elementary School: Six Career Paths

The Building Blocks

- Creative Path (Arts and Communication)
- Business Path (Bus. Management, Tech.)
- Health Path (Health Services)
- Helping Path (Human Services)
- Fixing/Building Path (Industrial Eng. Tech)
- Nature Path (Natural Resource Systems)

Helping to organize the world of work in an understandable language and helping kids learn that everyone has a productive role to play

Career Exploration

A Growing Sophistication

From Elem. To Middle School

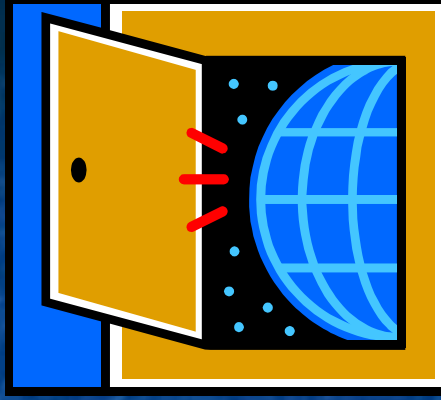

- Creative Path  Arts & Communication
- Business Path  Business Management/Tech.
- Health Path  Health Services
- Helping Path  Human Services
- Fixing/Building Path  Industrial & Engineering Tech.
- Nature Path  Natural Resource Systems

Exploring Interests and Abilities and Relating Them to the Broad Spectrum of Career Paths: Preparing for the 4-6 Year
Plan of Study

High School and Beyond: Recognizing & Addressing Career Maturity

Introducing Career Clusters

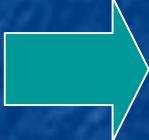

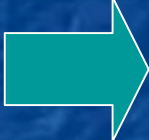

Opening Doors to the Future

Introducing Career Clusters

See the Handout

From Path  Cluster  Major

Meeting the Needs of All Students
Through a Developmental Approach to Career Planning: A Relevant 4-6 Year
Plan: See Handout

The New 3 R's and Comprehensive Guidance

- Rigor
- Relevance
- Relationships

Career Development: A Life-Long Process

